AMEND Senate Bill No. 2094*

House Bill No. 2277

by deleting subdivision (a)(1) in the amendatory language of Section 2 and substituting instead the following:

(1) "Financial literacy curriculum" means a course of study approved by the financial literacy commission;

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting subsection (c) in the amendatory language of Section 2 and substituting instead the following:

(c) If the commission establishes a certification and incentive program under this section, the commission will designate a teacher as a "certified financial literacy teacher" and will provide the teacher with an annual incentive payment, if the teacher:

(1) Has successfully completed a financial literacy curriculum;

(2) Has incorporated the principles covered by the financial literacy curriculum in the teacher's classroom instruction within the preceding school year. At the time of incorporation and any use of the curriculum in the classroom, the financial literacy curriculum must be designated as an approved curriculum by the commission; and

(3) Has administered student assessments developed and provided by the commission to assess students' progress in learning financial literacy concepts.
